Teaching and Learning Support Assistant required as soon as possible

Contract: Full Time (Temporary until July 2027)

Salary range: £29,561 - £30,405 (pro rata)

Would you like to make a positive difference to the lives of our students and support our school?

We are a popular and welcoming four form entry junior school, in a new purpose-built building and expanding to five forms of entry in the future. No day is ever the same with our 480 pupils, half of whom are multi language speakers and we celebrate our diversity.

We are looking for a Teaching and Learning Support Assistant to support a year five class which includes students with Autism, ADHD and some social, emotional, behavioural need. An understanding of how to support children with learning and emotional needs is beneficial although full training can be given for an eager candidate. The hours of work will be 8.30- 3.30 p.m. daily. The successful candidate must have relevant qualifications and experience or a strong desire to learn and make a difference. Salary will be Scale C (point depending on experience). There is also a possibility of additional hours at our afterschool club (details and experience will be discussed at the interview).

As part of this role, you will also be required to carry out a daily half an hour lunchtime duty. This will be arranged between 12.30 - 1.30 p.m.

This authority is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. The successful candidate will be required to carry out an enhanced DBS check.

We are looking for someone:

- With an ability to break down learning into manageable sections for pupils.
- With the ability to make learning fun, interactive and engaging.
- Who has an empathetic approach yet be firm and fair.
- With experience of working with children who have social and emotional difficulties.
- With experience of working with children with Autism and ADHD.
- With an understanding of children's learning needs and how to get the best from individual children
- Who has experience working with KS2 children (further qualifications an advantage i.e. NNEB or NVQ Level 3).
- Able to work as part of a team, building positive relationships with pupils, parents /carers, staff.
- Who has high expectations of pupil's achievements regarding learning, independence and behaviour.
- Able to show initiative and be prepared to take responsibility for individual children or a small group.

In return we can offer:

- A brand new school with many facilities
- Motivated, enthusiastic, happy and welcoming staff.
- Supportive senior leaders, parents & Governors.
- Well-resourced classrooms and purpose built, subject area classrooms
- Excellent training opportunities.

Closing date: Thursday 15th October at 9.30 a.m.

Interviews: Tuesday 20th October (Times t.b.c)
