What happened?

Who was affected by what you said / did?

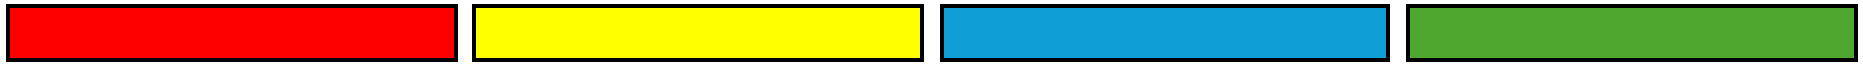

What did you say / do to upset them? Where were you at the time?

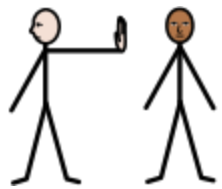

What were you thinking in this moment? How did you feel?

Did you know that what you said was racist and hurtful?

What is racism?

In your own words, write or draw what you think racism is

What is racism?

Racism means treating someone unfairly because of:

- The colour of their skin.
- Where they or their family come from.
- Their culture, language or beliefs.

Racism is never ok.

Everyone is unique and special. Everyone at Burlington belongs.

Reflection

How would you feel if someone was unkind to you because you were different?

What have been your thoughts since this happened with the other person?

What does racism look like?

Draw or describe what you think racism looks like:

What does racism look like?

Racism can happen when someone:

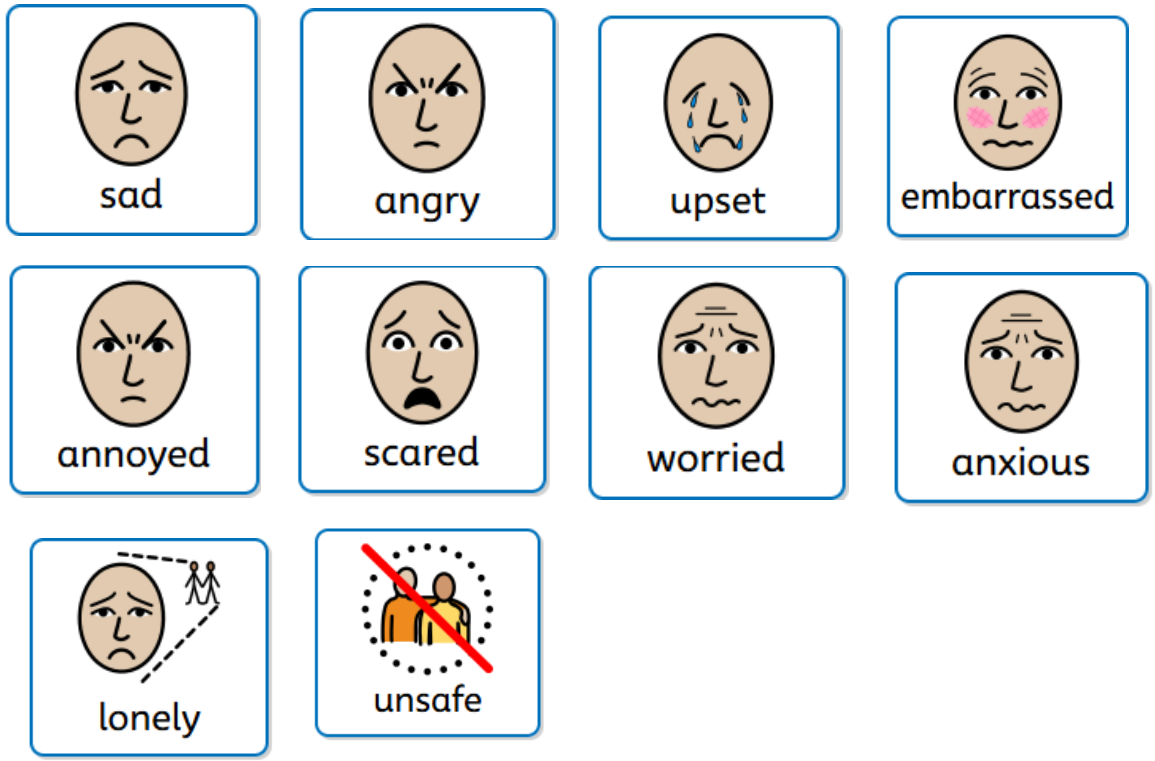

- Calls people unkind names
- Leaves someone out because they are different
- Makes fun of a person's culture, language or appearance
- Says hurtful things online
- Imitates someone's accent

Words can hurt just as much as actions.

What could you do if you saw this happening in the playground, classroom or in the park?

How can racism hurt people?

Racism can make someone feel:

Everyone deserved to feel happy and included.

Who has been most affected or hurt by what happened?

How have they been hurt?

Racism is UNFAIR

Everyone deserves:

What is something special about you that makes you unique?

We can help stop racism by:
